Minnesota Health Action Group Annual Employer Benefits Survey opens February 5 to employers across the state

Bloomington, MN (January 24, 2018) — The Minnesota Health Action Group announced today that its 8th annual Employer Benefits Survey will be open to all Minnesota employers beginning February 5.

The Action Group survey is by employers and for employers. It collects data about the issues and benefits that Minnesota employers say matter to them and their employees. It also provides benchmark results that allow employers to compare plans and see what is and isn't working across the state.

Employers who complete the free, confidential survey online receive a benchmark report of employee benefits trends, including:

- Health benefit planning and goals
- Medical plan costs and contribution rates
- Local health plans
- Prescription coverage and costs
- Wellness programs and employee well-being
- Retiree medical benefits

Employers can visit www.actiongroupsurvey.com for more information and to complete the survey between February 5-23. Employers who complete the survey will receive a benchmark report detailing the results in late March.
